THE DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

7 July 1976

Mr. John Waller
Inspector General

Dear John:

This is a very belated expression of thanks for the phone call you made to me on the occasion of my new appointment. I had held off writing pending the confirmation process and a swearing-in. I wanted to be legal before going in writing.

You and I will play key roles as we move into the future of this great Agency. I feel upbeat and confident knowing that the important role of Inspector General will be filled by a man of your great abilities. No doubt we will encounter problems and difficulties in the times ahead, but the opportunities most surely outnumber them.

All the best.

Faithfully yours,
